GEN. OGLESBY TO COME.

A Soldiers' District Reunion to be Held Oct. 25.

Some of the leading members of Dunham Post, G. A. R. and the Woman's Relief Corps were in conference this afternoon to consider a proposition to hold a congressional district soldiers' reunion in Decatur on Friday, Oct. 25, 1895. This was thought to be the best time as the Woman's Relief Corps have arranged to give a reception, banquet and campfire on that evening to the past officers and officers-elect of the Grand Army and Woman's Relief Corps of the department of Illinois, and most of them are expected to be present on that occasion, as will also Gen. Oglesby. It was agreed to send out invitations to each G. A. R. Post in the district to send a representative to a meeting to be held here in the near future to agree upon the district reunion and make arrangements therefor. It is thought all will agree to the proposition, and hereafter instead of regimental reunions the district reunion will afford an opportunity where any regiment desiring to do so may hold its reunion at the same time of the general reunion.

BULLET FOUND.

Evidence Showing that Pacer Smith Shot First at His Wife.

To-day one of the bullets Pacer Smith fired out of his revolver at the Frank Buchert home, was found imbedded in the stairway stringer, close to the ceiling, on a line with the point where Mrs. Smith was sitting. The bullet was secured. This accounts for three shots in the kitchen, and if Edna Buchert was shot there, there was no firing in front of the house. It is believed that Edna was shot in the kitchen and that she ran through the house, falling in the yard.

GOT $750.00.

P., D. & E. Pays Money for Injury to a Girl.

About a year ago Miss Conlin, daughter of Bryan Conlin, was struck by a P., D. & E. train at Dalton City, and carried quite a distance. To-day the company settled with Mr. Conlin, paying him $750. Mills Bros. represented the Conlin family and Attorney Horton the railroad company.

Balloon Ascension.

There was an interesting balloon ascension from the Hall & Showers' show tent on West Eldorado street shortly after noon to-day. The balloon went up beautifully to the height of about 1500 feet and floated off east. Professor Taylor was seated on the trapeze and performed while the balloon ascended. His parachute drop was easy and graceful. The professor landed just north of the Wabash railway in Church street and the balloon settled down near the alley back of the Church of God.

A good sized crowd saw the ascension.

The sociable will be continued this evening at the Broadway Baptist church. No charge at the door.

Ex-ALDERMAN KURL, of Pekin, almost bled to death from a bursting vein in a nostril.

THE local agency of the New York Underwriters' Ins. company was finally transferred yesterday from S. R. Gher to Lewis and Moore. H. F. Crawford, the special agent for the company, made the transfer. Mr. Gher had the supplies and the special agent claimed that he did not turn them all over. There was a discussion about the matter and finally Mr. Crawford went before Justice Hardy and swore out a search warrant and a writ of replevin. The papers were placed in the hands of Constable Midkiff, but he did not have to serve them, as the former agent had turned the property over. Mr. Gher was willing to do the right thing from the start, but he claims that Crawford was insulting in his language and Gher ordered him out of his office. Had Crawford remained in the city he would have been arrested on several charges.

THE Woman's home and the Woman's foreign missionary societies of the Presbyterian church held a joint meeting in the church parlors yesterday afternoon. Mrs. R. G. Wells, the president, presided, and Mrs. A. T. Hill led the devotional meeting. A lesson was had on South America, led by Mrs. S. T. Nesbitt, after which a letter from Edna Johnson, a missionary to Mexico, was read by Mrs. M. W. Shultz. After the exercises were completed tea was served and the ladies had a social time until the time for their departure.

New York Grapes.

New York grapes in baskets containing eight pounds have been retailing in this city for 20c per basket. Peaches and other fruit have been so plentiful and cheap that grapes have not been in much demand, but now other fruit is becoming somewhat scarce, and so grapes are wanted. For this reason and also because the crop this year is not a large one, the price has gone up in New York. A sharp rise in the price may follow here.

MONEY FOR MISSIONS.

The All-Absorbing Theme at the Episcopal Convention.

A GENERAL DEMAND FOR MORE MEANS.

The Church in America Charged with Neglect of Its Foreign Missions—Sympathy for Armenians—A Good Word for Texas.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 5.—"Money for Missions" was the all-day theme of the two houses of the Episcopal convention, and which, in accordance with the constitution, sat together as the general board of missions yesterday. The fathers of the church told of the work that had been done, of the difficulties surrounding it, and of the need of finances without stint, and ministerial recruits without number, to the end that the church, both abroad and at home might be pushed forward in the name of the Master. The majority of the resolutions passed at the convention, the failure of the American church to adequately hold up the hands of its representatives in other lands.

The meeting drew an audience that overflowed the church, and the galleries were crowded with women from all over the country identified with the Women's National auxiliary. After the adoption of the resolution commending Gov. Culberson and the Texas legislature, voluminous printed reports on foreign and domestic missions were presented in behalf of the board of managers. It showed that the gross receipts of the board for the year were, including the balance of last year, and a personal loan of $65,000 from Mr. George Bliss, $784,523, and the disbursements $718,378, leaving a balance of $66,145 in hand September 1. The loan from Mr. Bliss had been returned. The report of the Women's auxiliary showed that it had collected $187,643 for the fiscal year, of which $90,833 had been disbursed without coming into the central treasury.

The report was referred to committees, and then the missionary bishops were presented in regular order. Bishop Ferguson, of Africa, a colored man, protested that the church had not done its duty in regard to foreign missions.

Bishop Graves, of China, was next presented, and made an appeal for money.

Bishop McKim, of Japan, said that the work had taught the Japanese a lesson for the future, and that the Christians in the front of battle, and the way they fought, was known all over. It was now recognized that a man was no less a Japanese because he had become a Christian.

The work of the colored commission was represented by Bishop Nelson, of Georgia. He said that his diocese was 90 per cent missionary, and yet the total moneys received last year for the building up of this jurisdiction only averaged seven and a half cents a head of the people received.

The Episcopal church was the only one making any advance in the moral condition of the people of the south.

Bishop Brooke, of Oklahoma, spoke briefly for the Indians of New Mexico and Arizona.

Reports on the mission fields of Mexico and Brazil were made by Bishop McLaren, Dr. Forrester, of Mexico city, and others.

The order of the day was suspended, and in an eloquent address Bishop Dudley, of Kentucky, submitted this resolution:

Resolved: That upon the first assembling of the board of missions since the recent massacre of Armenian Christians, this board would place on record its sense of horror at the atrocities which have been perpetrated upon the Armenians, and its sympathy with all those who have suffered for the truth's sake, as well as its admiration for the courage and steadfastness which they have manifested in the midst of their unspeakable trials.

Support was given to the motion by Dr. Greer, of New York city, who has done considerable missionary work among the Armenian colony, and it was adopted by a rising vote.

Similar action was taken on a resolution supporting the appeals which have been made to the Christian nations to exercise their full power for the protection of the Armenians, and to secure redress for those who have suffered.

Still another resolution was submitted by the bishop of Albany, and unanimously adopted, depicting the Chinese massacre and sending prayerful sympathy to those affected, and calling upon the United States government to exercise its strong arm of protection over the citizens of this country residing in unhappy China, and to secure their treaty rights.

At the instance of Assistant Bishop Gilbert the meeting adopted a resolution calling upon the United States government to immediately investigate the attack upon the Snake River Indians in Idaho last summer, and to mete out punishment to the offenders, and the board also placed on record an expression of its disapproval of the judgment that neither the United States government should deter the church in the development of its missionary work, but that it would press forward with the Gospel of peace and good will.

NOT A CANDIDATE

Ex-Secretary Whitney Says He Is Not and Will Not Be a Candidate for the Presidency.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—A Washington special to an evening paper says: Ex-Secretary Whitney, when his name was suggested for the presidency by a southern democratic senator one day this week, said:

"Your kind mention of my name in connection with the presidency is very gratifying, but I have no desire to be considered a candidate. In fact, I shall not become a candidate, and if I thought it should become necessary for me to make a public statement to that effect I would do so in the daily press. The democratic party does not lack for men of ability and statesmanship from whom to select a leader. Whenever the party gets together and its own somewhat discordant elements are unified on a general policy—then the right man will spring up to lead the way to victory."

The southern came back from New York and repeated what Mr. Whitney said to them. It created some surprise and comment here, where Whitney has been put down as foremost in the list of active aspirants for the democratic nomination. Many leaders had come to look upon him as the residuary legate of Mr. Cleveland. A New Yorker discussing Mr. Whitney's attitude said:

"The ex-secretary made a serious disappointment in his failure to harmonize Tammany and the state democracy before the Syracuse convention. He is a great pacifier in politics. The ex-secretary since his remarkable success in that role in the campaign of 1892 had ranked next to Henry Clay. But his efforts failed entirely when he sought to bring the discordant New York Democratic elements in line this year, and he does not take a bright view of the political outlook next year. That is the real secret for his determination not to be a candidate."

THE STEAMER ST. PAUL'S

Creditable Performance on Her First Trial Trip—Can Carry the Mail.

GLoucester, Mass., Oct. 5.—In her official trial run yesterday between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Porpoise, a distance 44.96 knots, the International Navigation Co.'s new steamer St. Paul averaged 20.50 knots an hour for four consecutive hours, and established the right of being numbered among the auxiliary cruisers of the United States mail, and carrying the United States mail.

Throughout the run the engines worked smoothly and easily, and no accident or hitch of any kind occurred.

The St. Paul's time did not equal that of other sister ship, the St. Louis, by 1.72 knots for the official time, but the conditions under which the run of the latter ship was made was much more favorable, and the performance yesterday of the St. Paul bears favorable comparison with that of the St. Louis. The ship sailed direct for New York yesterday afternoon, where she probably arrived this morning.

ELECTRIC CAR COLLISION.

Several Persons Seriously Hurt—Caused by Carelessness.

TAOMA, Wash., Oct. 5.—A frightful accident occurred yesterday morning on the line of the Tacoma Traction Co., near the city limits, in which a dozen passengers were more or less dangerously hurt, and two will probably die from the injuries received.

The accident was a collision due to a heavy fog which enshrouded the track. Several persons were seriously hurt. The cars colliding were bound one for Edson and one coming from Payallup. Both cars were the largest electric cars made, and were filled with passengers and running at the rate of twenty miles an hour. The passengers pronounce the accident the result of carelessness. Two persons were pinned between the cars, and were extricated with difficulty.

MORMON CONFERENCE.

Large Attendance at the Semi-Annual Meeting—The Eldership.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 5.—The sixty-fifth semi-annual conference of the Mormon church began in the great Tabernacle building yesterday, members of the church being in attendance in large numbers from all parts of the United States and from Canada and Mexico. The attendance is unusually heavy on account of the Eldership being held here under the auspices of the Cambrian Musical association. Musical bodies from Colorado and Montana have entered in competition with the Mormon singers, who won the World's fair prize at Chicago. The sessions of the Eldership are daily and nightly attended by thousands of people. Thus far the adjudicators, who are three well-known musicians from the east, have awarded most of the prizes to Salt Lake.

Sudden Death of Hjalmer Hjorth Boyesen.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Hjalmer Hjorth Boyesen, professor in German literature, in Columbia college, died suddenly in this city yesterday morning from rheumatism of the heart. He came to America in 1860, and went to Chicago shortly afterwards and became the editor of a Norwegian paper called the Fremad.

A Mark of Respect to the Late Gen. Fox. WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Secretary Lamont yesterday directed, as a mark of respect, that the United States look at Saint Ste. Marie, one of the important works constructed under the supervision of the late Gen. Fox, be closed from 2 until 6 o'clock to-day, the hours of his funeral.

Three Big Mines Close Down. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 5.—Three big mines owned and operated by the Osborne & Sanger Co., at Smithton, closed down yesterday because the firm refused to pay the advanced rate. Mr. Shields says the reason his company refused to pay the price is because there is no true uniformity.

DUN'S TRADE REVIEW

Covering Transactions for the Third Quarter of 1895.

AND COMPARISONS WITH OTHER YEARS

Astonishing Improvement in Some Branches, Though with a Falling Off in Buying in Others Which Certain Industries Begin to Feel.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—R. G. Dun & Co. in their weekly review of trade issued to-day say:

Commercial failures in the third quarter of 1895 were 2,792, with liabilities of $28,167,179, averaging $11,521 per firm, against $10,038 last year, about 15 per cent more.

Highly important comparisons of prices this week show about October 3 the lowest range ever known for wholesale prices of all commodities.

Under the appropriate headings are given details of the different products with their prices, the most important being the unprecedented crop of corn and oats, a larger crop of wheat than false representations led the world to expect, an enormous demand for manufactured goods to replenish depleted stocks when prices began to raise, and a decrease in yield of cotton.

The cotton market has mounted above 9 cents and holds, in spite of a realization of the crop in late and quite largely held back, does not yet feel the influence of the receipts natural at this date.

Wheat is a shade weaker, while western receipts have been 6,550,494 bushels, against 4,877,104 last year, while Atlantic exports have been only 1,038,179 bushels, against 2,791,430 last year.

Reports from other cities at the end of the quarter are highly cheering in facts recorded, and reflects a hopeful spirit. Beyond question the quarter has shown astonishing improvement in some branches, and retail distribution has generally been good, though not commensurate with speculative wholesale purchases, as prices were rising. Hence there is a marked decrease in buying which some branches of industry begin to feel.

Railroad earnings for nine months are analyzed on another page, showing by classes of roads the gain or loss each month compared with 1894 and 1893, every month showing some aggregate gain this year over 1894, though not in all classes. Compared with 1893, all classes fall beyond each month. September shows a gain of 8.5 per cent over last year, but a loss of 12.2 per cent compared with 1892.

The Pennsylvania has ordered 40,000 tons of steel rails, and other orders of nearly their kind. Bessemer is lower, and also gray iron, and the demand for finished product is decidedly smaller, so that the average of iron prices turns downward for the first time since February.

Coke workers gain 6 per cent more wages, and coke is raised 18 to 33 per cent.

The market is stronger with heavy demands from the interior. All fears of gold exports have ceased.

LIVED BEYOND HIS MEANS

And Now Must Meet a Charge of Embezzlement.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Harry J. L. Martin, railroad tinner for the Commercial national bank of Chicago, was placed under arrest by United States Deputy Marshal Allan last night, on the charge of embezzlement. The young man, who was married only two years ago, has wealthy relatives in Douglas, Mich., who it is said, will help him out of his difficulty.

The first known of the shortage was when Bank Examiner McKean began counting funds for certain accounts which he had not examined for some time, and in which the embezzlement was found to have existed for a period of nearly four years. In three days it was learned the shortage amounted to $4,600 and was still growing. The American Surety Co. of New York is on Martin's bond for $3,000.

Martin is now in the custody of the deputy marshal, where he will remain until taken before United States Commissioner Foote to-day. Young Martin has a pleasant home on Jackson boulevard, where he has lived since he was married. It is said the young man lived beyond his means, as it is known his habits were of the best.

THE ALCABALA.

A Long-Standing Evil in Mexico, About to be Overthrown.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—United States Consul Donnelly writes the department of state from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, telling the amendments to the constitution proposed by the minister of finance, having for their object the abolition of the interstate tariff duties known as the "Alcabala," are now before the Mexican congress, which is in session. The amendments, he says, seek to overthrow an evil centuries old, fixed by popular habit and prejudice, and backed by powerful official interests. If passed and enforced, as these laws have hurt our relations with Mexico more than those of any other country. Their effect has been to check emigration and to keep out American enterprise and capital.

Gen. Mahone Grows Worn.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The condition of Gen. Mahone grew worse during the day. His physicians do not anticipate the end within twenty-four hours. He is semi-conscious but able to take liquid nourishment.

Death of an Ex-Mayor of Quebec.

QUEBEC, Oct. 5.—Owen Murphy, ex-mayor of this city and ex-member of the provincial legislature, died yesterday, aged 68. He was well-known in New York city.

Missouri, Mo., Oct. 5.—Judge

Knowles has confirmed the appointment of Andrew F. Burleigh as receiver of the Northern Pacific. All the various factions were represented in court. Similar action is expected in Idaho, and Receiver Burleigh will then have control from the Dakota line to the Pacific coast.

Killed by a Premature Blast.

EVANSTON, Ind., Oct. 5.—At Milltown, yesterday morning, on the Air line, John Daly, a quarryman, was killed by a premature blast.

Miss JOSEPH BOOKWALTER, of Danville, fell on her face from a bike and was seriously hurt.

The Peoria base ball club made a profit of $2,500 for the season's work.

"I have a dear little baby, and am well. I thank Mrs. Pinkham for this, and so could other motherless women. I was a victim of Female troubles. Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound cured me."

The Doctor's Discovery.

DR. BROWN, OF DAVID CITY, NEB., FINDS A MEDICINE OF RARE VIRTUE.

He First Cures Him with it, and then Prescribes it for His Patients with Gratifying Results. (From the Lincoln, Neb., Oil.)

Dr. Samuel L. Brown is a pioneer resident of David City, having lived there for twenty years. He is well known as a competent physician, having practiced medicine in every part. It is his recovery from a very serious disease that is looked upon as a miracle. When visited by a Call reporter Dr. Brown gladly related the history of his sickness and his final cure.

"This will be my first step into the field of a personal interview, but I am so enthusiastic over my recovery that I feel like conducting a regular experience meeting with me on my left side, and I soon became affected by kindred ailments. The pension board found my trouble to be the partial paralysis of left side, various veins of both legs and left various parts of my body. I was also troubled with Diabetes. I became unable to perform manual labor, having to give up the larger part of my practice. I could hobble around by the use of crutches and cane. I tried every medicine that I ever heard of in endeavoring to relieve my suffering.

"About a year ago I read of a medicine called Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, that seemed to fit my case, so I sent for some. I was so well satisfied with the sample that I sent for more, as they acted directly in harmony with nature. These are the things I look for in treating diseases. I used a number of boxes of the pills, and I am now entirely relieved of all my ailments, and am able to move about once more, without being hampered with crippling disease. In my practice I always use Pink Pills where the diagnosis of the case favors them.

"I now have a remarkable case at Brainard, Augustus Talbot, the postmaster, was suffering from diabetes and indigestion, and was in the first stages of Bright's disease. The doctors had failed to give him any relief. All hopes of his recovery had been given up when I was called in and took charge of the case. He is now on the road to complete recovery. The Bright's disease was headed off, and the other ailments overwhelmed. A happier family cannot be found than that of Dr. Williams' Talbot, of Brainard.

Sworn and subscribed to before me this seventh day of September, A. D. 1895, at David City, Neb. E. S. RYAN, Notary Public.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are now given to the public as an unfailing blood builder and nerve restorer, curing all forms of weakness arising from a watery condition of the blood or altered nerves. The pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price (50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50—they are never sold in bulk or by the dozen) by Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Scarborough, N.Y.

Fall Footwear.

For Men:

Hansen & Sons, who are the recognized originators of the best styles, offer two very nobby shoes entirely new, both in enameled calf. One is the "Green toe," with extra heavy soles and extension edges. The other is known as the "Manhattan last." It has a cork sole and is a trifle wider than the Grecian toe. These are certainly the "proper thing" and they are bound to have a big sale. Enameled calf is just what is needed for fall and winter wear. It is guaranteed to keep out the water, and the wearer of these shoes can do without rubbers and still have no fear of catching cold.

But how about the Ladies?

Their feet ought to be properly and prettily protected, and surely they should be guarded against catching cold as well as the stronger and sterner sex.

LOST HER BABY GIRL.

Attempt of Mrs. David Kizer to Keep Her Child a Failure.

Judge Vail Restores Grace to Her Father. Jacob Coon—A Scene in Court—Balling Martin Had to Drag the Child Away From the Mother's Arms to Enforce the Order of the Court.

There was a sensational scene in the circuit court room at 11:30 a. m. to-day at the close of the habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Jacob Coon to regain possession of Grace Ada Coon, aged 5 years, who had been kidnapped and taken to Mattoon by his former wife, Mrs. David Kizer.

It is a matter of record that Jacob Coon and Anna L. Woodward were married in 1879 near Decatur. To the couple were born three children, Fred Coon, aged 15, Mabel Coon, aged 12 years, and Grace Ada Coon, aged 5 years. The couple did not live happily together, and last July Mrs. Coon got a divorce from her husband on the ground of cruelty, it then being the understanding that the husband was to retain possession of the three children. After divorce had been granted, a month or so, Mrs. Coon married David Kizer, who is now a saloon keeper at Mattoon. Coon is a cleaner for the Wabash road and works at night. He earns $43 a month, and to-day testified that he slept from 3 to 4 hours a day, not more, putting in the balance of the time looking after his children and caring for a truck patch.

On the evening of Oct. 1 Mrs. Kizer took Grace from her former husband's home, 1680 North Clayton street, and got on the night train, going to Mattoon with the child. Fred had run to the Wabash shops to tell Coon what had happened and Coon made an effort to get his child but gave it up.

At the hearing before Judge Vail to-day, Attorneys Nelson and Whitley represented Coon and Attorney Redman Mrs. Kizer. Considerable testimony was offered, and at last Judge Vail ordered that for the present the father should have the care of Grace. He made the point that the mother since the divorce had changed her position toward the children by marrying Kizer, who under the law would not be responsible for her care and support.

AN AFFECTING SCENE.
When Mrs. Kizer realized the force of the decision she began weeping and held her little girl close to her breast. All through the hearing she had held the child in her lap. She could not be brought to believe that she would have to give her up, and she declared that she could not and would not. The Judge ordered her to restore the girl to her father. She refused to do so, and would not let the child go. Finally the court ordered Bailiff Martin to remove the little girl from the arms of the mother. The bailiff proceeded to do so, but he met with resistance, the mother crying in an agonizing way and holding the child in her arms. Mr. Martin took hold of the child, but the mother would not loosen her hold. She got up, and with Martin pulling at the child, the mother came along until she got over to the side of the room where the father was sitting in a chair. When she reached that point Mrs. Kizer's grief gave way to anger, and she proceeded to go for Coon in a manner that betokened trouble of a serious nature. In her anger Mrs. Kizer lost her grip on the child, and Martin placed it in the lap of the father. Mrs. Kizer with a sob talked about blood shed, but she was finally led away, and the order of the court was enforced. There were many spectators in the court, including a dozen ladies, who took in the scene. The defeated mother went down the stairway crying, supported by her sister, Mrs. Richardson, a widow, and Coon and his children remained behind. The little girl is deeply attached to her father. She was not affected by the separation from her mother, and seemed to be fully as contented with her father and her sister, Mabel. Mr. Coon, after his wife had time to get away from the court house, took his little girl in his arms, going home.

This arrangement will give everybody on all the branches transportation to the depot in ample time to catch the excursion train, which will leave at 7:30.

The loss to Charles Munch by the fire at Boody Friday afternoon was about $1500; insurance $1235, about $700 of which was on machinery which was saved. There were two two-story frame buildings destroyed. The Modern Woodmen lost all of the lodge equipment, except some papers. The goat was cremated.

THE CAPITAL HORROR.

Snafide of W. C. Henry, the Wife Murderer—Dead in a Cornfield.

Lying on his back in a cornfield near Doerfer's brick yard southeast of Springfield, the remains of William C. Henry, who shot and killed his wife Thursday evening at their home, were found yesterday. The body was discovered by a colored man named J. W. Asay, residing in Woodside township. Asay at once telephoned to Sheriff Baxter that the murderer had been found, and the sheriff went to the cornfield.

Henry was found lying on his back with his right arm across his head. In his right hand he firmly held a 38-caliber revolver with one empty cartridge. There was a large cut on the left wrist. When searched $44.83 in money, bills and silver were found, a silver watch attached to a gold chain and a K. of P. charm. When the dead man was lifted up an old bone handled knife was found under his head with several blood stains on the handle. A bullet hole in his left temple and another hole above the heart told the story that he had taken his own life. Henry's life was insured for $3,000 in the K. of P. Endowment Rank.

Mrs. Henry died of her injuries Friday morning.

LEVI HAD TO BE TIED.

A Crazy Man in the County Court—The Verdict.

In the county court to-day Levi Davidson, aged 55 years, a resident of East Leafland avenue, was a subject of inquiry as to his alleged insanity. Twelve years ago Davidson became insane. The hearing developed the fact that the cause of Davidson's affliction is due to a general weakened condition, lung and spinal disease, and he was adjudged insane. The jury members were Dr. O. R. Allen, S. W. Hamaker, S. M. Davis, J. H. Moore, J. H. Durfee and F. W. Hardy.

The patient had to be overpowered at his home and tied with a bed cord by Deputy Holmes before he could be brought to the court. He was conveyed in a wagon, and was carried up stairs to the court room by the court bailiffs. Mr. Davidson will be taken to Kankakee for treatment.

Talks on Europe.

A DANGEROUS MAN.

George Hunt Goes Gunning for His Wife and Gets in Jail.

He Shot at Mrs. A. Wait Through a Window—Capture of the Drunkard at His Home.

George Hunt is in the county jail, and will have to answer a charge of attempting to murder Mrs. Nancy Wait, wife of A. Wait, the proprietor of the Arcade Department store, mistaking that lady for his wife.

Hunt is less than 30 years of age, and is a laborer. He has been arrested heretofore for misdemeanors. Yesterday he was drunk, and armed with a revolver. He started out to find his wife whom he had threatened to kill. He told her three days ago that he intended to kill her and join Pacer Smith in jail, and in a saloon just before he started out West Main street he took out his revolver and said he was going to kill somebody.

The next heard of him he was prowling around the home of A. Wait at the corner of West Main and Pine streets. He had peered into other houses in that vicinity before reaching that point. He was evidently looking for his wife, who had been working for Mrs. Johnson, who the day before had moved from her former residence. She was then three doors distant from the Wait place.

SHOT AT MRS. WAIT.

In an interview Mrs. Wait gives this version of her experience with the wife-hunter:

About four o'clock she was upstairs looking after some household duties and glancing out of the window she saw the man Hunt pacing up and down in front of the house. She did not know who he was, of course, and paid little attention to him until she heard two shots from a revolver. Then she became somewhat alarmed and hastened down stairs to lock the doors. The first two shots were not aimed at anyone and Mrs. Wait thought that Hunt was some drunken man and was not alarmed, except that he might break into the house. After she had locked the door she returned to the second door of the residence to resume her work. Soon after she heard someone rattling at the door on the south side of the dining room. The rattling and hammering was succeeded by a few vigorous kicks and Mrs. Wait became alarmed for fear that the fellow might break into the house. She went to a back window and called to him, asking what he wanted and he mumbled some reply which she could not hear. Then she came down stairs and again asked the fellow what he wanted, but she did not get a reply. She then opened the door and looked into the parlor door, forty feet away. Hunt was evidently bent on shooting some one. When he saw that his bullet had not taken effect on Mrs. Wait he ran to the sitting room window and made preparations to shoot from there. For several minutes he kept Mrs. Wait dodging from the dining room to the sitting room and then he left, going out to Oakland avenue, where he was finally captured.

After leaving the Wait place Hunt went over to the barn at the rear of the J. C. Beatty residence and talked with an old man who was using an ax. He made a motion to shoot the man, when the old gentleman raised his ax and said he was not to be scared by an owl. Hunt didn't pull his revolver, but went on down the street to Wood street, going west to Oakland avenue, thence north to his home near the Wabash railroad, where he was subsequently arrested by the officers and lodged in the county jail.

THE ORACLE.

It is a question whether Hunt became angry at Mrs. Wait because she closed the door against him, or whether he took her for his wife.

THE ORACLE.

Officers Cross, Brady, Williamson, Brookway, Captain Muthersbaugh and Constable Kirkbridge responded to the telephone calls. It was difficult for a time to secure a description of the man who had done the shooting, but finally a trace of Hunt was secured at the grocery stores on Oakland avenue, the parties there having seen him trudging along toward his home. The officers surrounded the house and quickly discovered Hunt he was brought to the jail. He had reloaded his revolver and had a lot of extra cartridges in his pockets. When he reached the jail he said he wanted to be put in with Pacer Smith. "He's a friend of mine," he added.

The grand jury will attend to Hunt at once. He will no doubt be indicted for attempted murder and sent to the penitentiary.

In the chase for Hunt the officers came across an old soldier out on Macon street. He was drunk, and some boys had thrown rocks at him. He threw rocks at them and hit a house. The officers put him in jail.
